the Ladies' Aid Society of the M.
E. Church at her home Wednesday, August 31.

Please return to me the keys and seals of Bath county's ball boxes.
LESLIE SHROUT, County Clerk.

Correspondents must give only news notices of deaths. Do not obituary notices and will be a line of five average words each.
if

Born, September 1, to Mr. and Mrs. W. Dale (niece of John Hart), of Mortonsville, Woodford county, an eight-pound son, William Lee.

MEETING CLOSED.—Elder J. E.
Wilhoit closed his seven-day meeting held in John Doyle's bar-naco barn near Reynoldsville by baptizing seven converts Friday afternoon.

RENTING.—I will rent at auction, on the premises, on Saturday, September 17, the Lewis farm of 206 acres near lower
State bridge. See small bills.
J. J. LACY, Adm.

PROFITS FOR CASH.—
profits and large volume you can have each year on hill. Try me under a system.
CLYDE BYRON.

SALE.—I will sell at 11 o'clock a. m., on Court day, September 12, of the Courthouse, of cattle, horses and growing crops belonging to estate of James (Babe) Copher, deceased.
J. J. LACY, Adm.

SCHOOL OPENED.—The High School opened Monday with 191 pupils. As the average session was 252 it is expected to increase the attendance to 300.
The teachers are: F. Martin, Principal; Mrs. C. F. Martin, Assistant; L. D. Broder, Misses Walter Mae Radford, Leona Latham and Harriet Sechrist.

READ THIS.—Notice No. 2.—I have sold out to Clyde Byron my interest in the CROCKERY business, and a prompt settlement of your account is requested; and in order to wind up the old business, please call and settle at once.
Thanking you for past favors,
S. D. THOMPSON.

I have bought out my partner, "Dud" Thompson. Come in and settle your account, and try me under the new cash system just adopted, as by a concentration of operating force and reduction of profits I expect to make it to your interest to spend your cash with me.
R. CLYDE BYRON.

PAY HERE TO IT.—Don't blame me if THE OUTLOOK ceases coming to you. The U. S. postal law makes certain requirements of publishers with regard to subscriptions. If the publisher doesn't observe them his newspaper is refused the privilege of the mails. So if your subscription is not properly paid up this OUTLOOK will cease going to you through the mails. No other course is open to us. We try to notify subscribers by means of an arrow mark at their address when they should renew. No matter what other publishers do THE OUTLOOK will observe the law.

FOR SALE.—Having removed to Oklahoma, I desire to sell the following articles (most of which are practically as good as new) at very low prices: Globe-Wernicke sectional bookcase, quartered oak; leather book-iron bed, with extra heavy woven coil springs; old dresser and washstand; davenport, cost $30, will sell for less than half; washstand; four chair chairs;
two center tables, and a number of other articles.

These things can be seen and bought from Miss C. M. McGlosen, Olympia, Ky.
W. E. HOUTSON, Haworth, Okla.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Oil Snedegar is convalescent of fever.
Mrs. D. S. Estill went to Cincinnati Monday afternoon.

Ollie Coons and wife went to Cincinnati Friday afternoon.

Al Add Power went to Cincinnati Wednesday of this week.

Miss Lellie Lee Harris left Monday afternoon to enter school at Midway.

N. R. Ratliff, of Winchester, visited his brothers C. S. and S. J. last week.

Miss Gertrude Curd, of Wil-more, came Monday to visit Miss Lillian Shroat.

John D. Atkinson, of Stanton, joined his wife here last week on a visit to relatives.

Mrs. Earl Kincaid has recovered from an attack of appendicitis and is going about.

Mrs. Joe Duff, of near Sharps-burg, came Sunday to visit her children.

Ewell Shroat visited his uncle Albert Wilson, in Carlisle,
Wednesday of last week.

L. R. Slesser and wife returned last week from a trip to Cleveland, Chicago and Cincinnati.

Judge A. N. Crooks and family are installed at the Owings House until he can build a residence.

Woods Guggel is critically ill at his home on White oak, from a sore toe which was amputated.

Curtis Kash and wife, of lower State creek, left Tuesday for Blanca, Col., to make their home.

Robt. Duff, Jailer, went Monday to attend a meeting of the Jailers' Association at London, Ky.

Chas. Jones, wife and baby, daughter, of Millersburg, visited J. M. Perry and wife the past week.

Mrs. Annie Coyle's fever has left her, but she remains seriously ill, being unable to retain solid food or medicine.

L. D. Broder and Miss Mattie Woodson Barnes went to Cincinnati last week. Mrs. Broder returning home with their Saturday.

John McKinnin, after spending a few weeks at Amy's Spring, Morgan county, expects to go to Texas to spend the winter.

Wm. Hart and little granddaughter Elizabeth H. Byrd, of Roe's Run, went Sunday to join their parents at W. L. Dale's, in Woodford county.

Tucker Power and Marsh Balley, of upper Prichy Ash neighborhood, left Monday to spend a couple of weeks for their health at Amy's Springs, Morgan Co.

Ed L. Barnes and wife left Tuesday to spend some weeks at Rosenberg and other points in Texas. If they like the country they may conclude to make their home there.

Miss Lou Adams, after spending the summer visiting relatives and friends at Ford, Clark county, returned Thursday. She was accompanied home by her niece Miss Ida Adams.

SVIES-GILVIN.—John W. Sives and Miss Josie D. Gilvin were married at T. S. Shroat's store Wednesday, July 31, by Rev. H. C. Martin. They were accompanied by Mr. Crouch and Miss Gilvin, Mr. Boone and wife.

The bride is a daughter of the widow of Chas. Gilvin, and all live in the Bethel-Sherburne neighborhood.

PUBLIC SALE.—I will sell at auction about 11 o'clock a. m., on next County Court day, September 12, in front of Courthouse, a lot of cattle, horses and hogs, and growing crops belonging to the estate of James (Babe) Copher, deceased.
J. J. LACY, Adm.

9-11
BAC CROPS IN MISSOURI.—Alex Spenser, of Slater, Mo., writes that he will not come here on a visit this week. He says crops in his section are not good on account of too much rain earlier in the season, and drouth is prevailing now.

RENTING.—I will rent at auction, on the premises, on Saturday, September 17, the Lewis
farm of 206 acres near lower
State bridge. See small bills.
J. J. LACY, Adm.

9-21
FOR SALE: House and lot on east side State Avenue. Close in. Apply to
J. J. LACY.

For Sale: House and lot east side State Avenue. Close in. Apply to
J. J. LACY.

RED CROSS SEALS.—Arrangements for the sale of Red Cross Christmas Seals for 1910 were announced in a bulletin issued last week by the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis and the Red Cross. "A million for Tuberculosis" will be the slogan of the 1910 campaign.

Two features of the sale this year are unique and will bring considerable capital to the tuberculosis fighters. The American National Red Cross is to issue the stamps as in former years, but this organization will work in close co-operation with the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis.

Every body will share in the proceeds of the sales. The charge to local associations for use of the National stamps has been reduced also from 20 per cent. to 12 1/2 per cent, which will mean at least $50,000 more for tuberculosis work in all parts of the United States.

The stamps are to be designated as "Red Cross Seals" this year and are to be placed on the back of the letters instead of on the front.

The National Conference of Tuberculosis Secretaries, through its President Mr. John A. Kingsburg of New York, has issued a letter calling upon all state and local anti-tuberculosis associations to unite with the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis.

The names of his children, Mrs.
Wellington Barnes, of Nevada, Mo.; Mrs. A. S. Thompson and Mrs. W. A. Bradley of Fleming county; Mrs. Frank Miller, deceased; Mrs. J. T. Denton, of Grenola, Kansas; T. J. Havens,
deceased; Mrs. William
Ratliff, deceased; S. L. Havens, of Athens, Ill.; A. L. Havens, deceased.

ALFRED HAVENS' DEATH.—
Alfred Havens, born March 1, 1822, died Sept. 4, and was buried Sept. 6.

Deceased was one of the most prominent citizens of Grange City neighborhood, Fleming county.
He was highly esteemed.

He is survived by six children, thirty-eight grandchildren and fourty-eight great-grandchildren.
The names of his children are:
Mrs. Wellington Barnes, of Nevada, Mo.; Mrs. A. S. Thompson
and Mrs. W. A. Bradley of Fleming county; Mrs. Frank Miller, deceased; Mrs. J. T. Denton, of Grenola, Kansas; T. J. Havens,
deceased; Mrs. William
Ratliff, deceased; S. L. Havens, of Athens, Ill.; A. L. Havens, deceased.

IT HAS APPENDICITIS.—Miss Amanda Clark, daughter of James Clark and wife of upper State creek, was taken to a hospital at Lexington Monday afternoon by Dr. F. P. Guggel and her brother Robert to be operated on by Dr. David Barrow for appendicitis.

It was she and not her sister Lucy, as was stated last week, who was ill and whom Dr. Barrow came to see Tuesday night about midnight, driving through in an automobile.

EXCESS OF RAIN.—An excess of rain has fallen in the past ten days. A heavy rain fell Aug. 31, one Friday afternoon, that night and Saturday morning and on Sunday. There is no lack of moisture now to put the corn and tobacco crops through, but there is some danger of the ripening of tobacco being delayed until frost.
Fall grass will be fine.

POOLING SPEECHES.—H. M.
Bourne, of Owenton, spoke to a large crowd at the Court-house Saturday afternoon and on the steps of the 1910 Barley tobacco pool. Judge C. W. Goodpastor also made an address favoring the pool. While the crowdsemed interested there was no sentiment developed in favor of the pool.

PUBLIC SALE.—I will sell at public auction about 11 o'clock a. m., on next County Court day, September 12, in front of Courthouse, a lot of cattle, horses and
hogs, and growing crops belonging to the estate of James (Babe)
Copher, deceased.
J. J. LACY, Adm.

9-11
CROUCH-DAVIS.—CURRAN
Crouch, son of the late Francis Crouch, and Miss Leona Davis, daughter of Mit Davis, all of north of town, eloped to Louisville Sunday and were married here Monday.

SIGN YOUR NAME.—It is the universal rule in newspaper offices to pay no attention to communications to which the writer's name is not signed.

Mrs. Belle Rice weighed seventy 111-pound feeding steers to Sidd Hart at $5.35 per cwt. Monday.

A daughter, named Laura Susan, was born to Mr. and Mrs.
John Lowry, of the eastern suburbs, Thursday night.

Monday was Labor day and a national holiday, hence the rfd carriers did not make their trips.

Nicholas county citizens are preparing to hold the annual fair near Carlisle next year.

Another heavy rain shortly after noon Monday broke the drouth some more.

Next Monday will be September County Court day.

Life is full of trials, but there are not half enough convictions.

THE LAZY MEMBER.—Mayor
Sheehan was ridiculing the pretensions of a political opponent.
"He takes," said Mayor Sheehan, with a smile, "too much credit. He reminds me of the Cayuse farmer. The farmer came home one night from a banquet and, throwing himself in a chair before the stove, he sighed:
"I'm about tired out. Be the cows in the barn?"

"Yes, Andoniram," said the wife.

"Hosses fed and bedded?" asked the farmer, taking from his pocket a cigar with a gilt band around it.

"Yes, Andoniram," said the
wife.

"Chickens ain't locked up, though, are they?"

"Yes, Andoniram; long ago."
"Wood chopped for mornin'?"

"Yes."

"Dip picked and the wagon wheel mended for tomorrow's market?"

"Yes, Andoniram."

"The farmer lit the cigar, yawned and said:
"Well, then, just hand me the farrier, the cooper and the jug of cider, Maria. I'll turn in soon. Farmin' is beginnin' to tell on me."

ANOTHER CUSTOMER.—Looking more needy and seedy than ever, Sir Percival Luckcash strode into his son's costly tailor's.

The proprietor welcomed him with a bleaming countenance.

"Ahem!" choked Sir Percival.
Bart. "My son informs me to run a bill here for three years. Is that correct?"

"It is, Sir Percival," frowned the proprietor.

"Well, I have come—"
"Oh, pray, Sir Percival," oozed proprietor, bowing and kowtowing before the noble bart. "I assure you there is really not the slightest hurry."

"Quite so," returned the imperious Baronet serenely. "And, as I am doing, I have come to order a suit of clothes myself."

"Answers."

LAWYER'S FEE.—Richard Parr, the discoverer of the sugar trust frauds, was talking in New York about the generous reward granted him by the government, says the Detroit Free Press.

"Some folks thought I was going to get a reward of a couple of millions or so," said Mr. Parr.
"They put me in the lawyer class."

"The lawyer class?" said the reporter, puzzled.

"Yes," said Mr. Parr, "the lawyer class. The junior and senior partner of a law firm, you know, once put their heads together to draft a client's bill."

"We've won the will contest for him," said the junior partner, rubbing his hands. "Suppose we charge him $200,000."

"But the senior frowned.
"Go on," he said. "He's worth more than that."

JOLLY CENTENARIAN.—A tourist once chanced to meet the usual "oldest inhabitant" of a village. In the course of conversation he asked the ancient how old he was.

"I be jist a hundred," was the reply.

"I doubt if you'll see another hundred," said the tourist, trying to make conversation.

"I don't know so much about that, mister," was the hopeful response.

"I be stronger now than when I started on the first hundred."

THE ETHERAL QUESTION.—A teacher was trying to explain the danger of overwork to one of the smallest pupils.

"Well, my boy, if your father were busy all day and said he would have to go back to his office at night what would he be doing?"

"That's what ma wants to know."

ONE DISTINCTION.—"What was King Solomon renowned for, above all things else," asked the elderly visitor who was making a little talk to the children of the Sunday school.

"He was related by marriage to more people than any other man that ever lived," promptly spoke up a fine fair-haired little girl in the front row of seats.

"It's HANDED OVER WEEKLY."
—The late O. Henry did not believe in woman suffrage.

It, as at upper at Moquin's in New York, an under-paid girl reporter said to the humorist bitterly.

"Women should receive men's wages."

"Well, married women do," O.
Henry replied.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

We are authorized to announce Will J. Fields, of Carter county, as a candidate for Congress in the Ninth district of Kentucky, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

The Weather Chief at Washington says it's no use to shoot up in the sky to make it rain. Besides, it's dangerous to the airship man.

TOM WARSON, of Georgia, like the celebrated Finnegan, is "off again, on again, gone again." He had hardly got back into the Democratic party before he slipped Hoke Smith and Congressman Hardwick, both recently nominated.

SENATOR DOLIVER, of Iowa, spokesman for the insurgent Republicans intimates that Col. Roosevelt may be the Presidential candidate of the insurgents. Teddy has come out for an elaborate program of progressive measures.

The American Tobacco Co. is quoted as denying that it has bought the 1900 pooled Burley tobacco, and its position is quoted as having a sufficient supply on hand, and estimating the 1910 crop at $50,000,000 pounds. But, you can't always or hardly ever judge what a trust means when it says.

The new census gives New York City 4,766,883 population. London has about 7,500,000. At their present rate of increase they will each have 11,200,000 in 1920. However, neither is likely to keep up its present rate of increase. People may be too reasonable by that time to want to crowd all together in such an artificial life of a great city.

NEAR Divide, Colorado, in one of the wildest parts of the Rocky mountains, last week a train robber held up Engineer Frank Stewart, Fireman and Conductor, of the Colorado Midland train, with intent to rob the express car. Buchanan dodged under the train, and as the robber was trying to shoot at him Stewart struck the robber in the head with a rock, the robber at that instant lying on his back, and Stewart, hitting him in the leg. The robber was almost instantly killed by the rock. Stewart deserves a hero medal.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Oklahoma.

The sick are no better of their illness.

We had a heavy rain Sunday which did some damage.

The Collier brothers, Clem, Thomas and Elbert, of Hale, Mo., and J. P. Collier and Morris, Jr., of near Bethel, were guests of J. W. Crain and family Tuesday last week.

Large crowd attended the district meeting at Fairview Sunday.

J. W. Crain and wife visited J. P. Collier and wife Saturday.

Orange City.

Earl Price has appendicitis.

Mrs. Taylor Bradley and two children, of Athens, Ill., came last week to visit her mother, Mrs. Emily Bradley.

Mrs. Jas. Rawlings, of Frankfort, came Saturday to visit relatives.

A. D. Rawlings and grandson Loren returned last week, after a month's visit with relatives at Frankfort.

HAD TO DECLINE. A Paducah negro, known as "Mose," works in the vinegar factory of Oscar Gregory, a bluesman boy, who has made his mark for himself as a singer in a vinegar factory when he is not doubled up with some ailment.

One day, recently, his employer discovered Mose tied into a knot, in a corner. The darkey explained between groans, that he suffered from cramps. Now upstairs in a bottle was a quantity of crude kalamia ginger, hot as an orthodox Hades and strong as the biceps of Sharkey.

The proprietor took the tightly-knit negro up into his office and gave him a heroic dose of the stuff. The cramps died out—were burned to death in fact.

A week later the proprietor found Mose bent double with an attack of "miz-ry" in his midst.

"Come on up here, Mose," he said, and I give you some more of that ginger.

"Boss," said the sufferer, with an involuntary quiver of remembrance, "Ah! hab to decline. Ah don't neber 'spect erger tin water don't sounch."

WON THE PRIZE. A prize of $100 was offered by the city of Lexington for the child who could maintain the longest silence.

The child who won the prize was a little girl named Alice, who maintained her silence for a full hour.

"Cause the more you lick it the faster it goes."—Philadelphia Record.

Unsuccessful hair dresser is ever found asleep at the switch.

HE THOUGHT IT WAS FROG. Walter, a bright little boy of a somewhat skeptical turn of mind, had been in Sunday-school about the man at the pool of Bethesda. When asked what caused the healing of the waters, he said, "Well, teacher, they thought it was angels, but I kind of think it was frogs."

"IT FROG FAT."—"Miss Bings," stammers the young man, called on you last night, did I not?"

"What an odd question! Of course you did."

"W-w-well, I just wanted to say that if I proposed to you I was drunk."

"To ease your mind, I will say that if I accepted you I was crazy."—Judge.

A PHANTASMA. "I thought I saw a gummy sack of flour dropped in to tell me I looked angry, and, lawsey me! That gummy sack had said, 'Says 'em, 'What can that be?'"

Says she: "Why Hiram Brown, That's just our summer boarder, In her one-piece linen gown."

Did NOT SUSPECT. A farmer and his wife killed their last hog and left the carcass out at night to cool. It was gone next morning.

They agreed to say nothing and the first person mentioning their loss was the thief. Sunday the preacher read out his text: "I have meat to eat that ye know not of." Judging his man said: "Methinks we never did suspect him, did we?"—Ex.

SOMETHING HAPPENED. One of the trains on a transcontinental line which passes through Kansas City and usually late was reported on time a few evenings ago.

The young man who writes the paragraphs about the trains at the station put down the statistics concerning this train:

"It left from the west on time," then he wrote underneath: "Cause unknown."—Saturday Evening Post.

CONFUSION OF WORDS. The newspapers recount how Colonel Roosevelt was asked out of a few nights ago and made to speak in his pajamas. Which recalls an incident a few years ago as follows: "Story is a lie out of whole cloth; probably fabricated by enemies to ruin the party. At that time, a local abstainer, but never had pajamas last night nor any other time."—Hartford Herald.

HOW IT WAS. Against an old Georgia negro, charged with stealing a pig, the evidence was absolutely conclusive, and the Judge, who knew the old darkey well, said reproachfully:

"Now, uncle, why did you steal that pig?"

"Bekase mah pooh family wuz starvin', yo' honor," whimpered the old man.

"Family starvin'!" cried the Judge. "Then they told me you keep five dogs. How is that, uncle?"

"Why, yo' honor," said uncle, reproachfully, "I 'spect mah family to eat dem dogs!"—Harper's Magazine.

ONE SIDE ENOUGH. Senator William Alden Smith says the evident desire of Col. Roosevelt to listen to the claims of the surgeons and Regulars places him in a different category from an Irish Justice of the Peace out in Michigan. In a trial the evidence was all in, and the plaintiff's attorney had made a long and very expensive argument, when the lawyer acting for the defense arose.

"What are you doing?" asked the Justice, as the lawyer began.

"Going to present our side of the case."

"I don't want to hear both sides argued. It has a tendency to confuse the court."—Washingtonian.

A WILY WILL. "I was called in by a close-fisted old merchant the other day," a Boston lawyer remarked, smiling. "He wanted me to draw his will, and he proceeded to do, following his verbal instructions. Presently he said:

"To each and every clerk who has been in my employ for ten years I give $10,000."

"This seemed like a considerable sum to me, and I ventured a slight protest, as he had a number of daughters, and his entire fortune was not large."

"Oh, that's all right," he said, with a little crooked smile. "You know people have always said that I was close and hard, and I want them to think well of me when I am gone."

"I was a little touched, and I said so, but he waived it aside and we continued with the list of legatees. When I was about to leave the office the old fellow smiled again his little crooked smile."

"About these $10,000 legacies," he said, "there isn't a clerk in my place who has been with me longer than the papers."—

WHERE WAS JOHN? A San Francisco woman, whose husband had been dead some years, went to a medium, who produced the spirit of her dead husband.

"My dear John," said the widow to the spirit, "are you happy now?"

"I am very happy," John replied.

"Happier than you were with me on earth?" she asked.

"Yes," was the answer: "I am far happier than I was on earth with you."

"Tell me, John, what is it like in heaven?"

"Heaven!" said John, "I'm not in heaven."—Lippincott's Magazine.

A PROMPT DECISION.—"Pardon, I hear you've about decided to accept that call to Kansas City."

"Well, I've got tired of casting pearls before swine."

"They dropped in to tell you last night and decided to offer you far more money than they propose to pay you out there."

"H'm. As I was saying, I've got tired of casting pearls before swine. I could not think of going to Kansas City, one of the greatest hog-killing centers in the country."
